A New Halloween Event for Everyone: Come Join Us!

Halloween is a fun event for everyone, even if we're not dressing up. To open up the opportunity for more Homestead Community residents to enjoy the holiday and the season – costumed or not – we're going to try something new this year. Come join us for a family-friendly Halloween celebration for all ages!

For the kids, we'll have a make-up artist for costume "completion", mini pumpkin painting, trick-or-treat bag creation/decoration, prizes for those fabulous costumes and Miss Kitty will be along for entertainment.

For adults, we'll have a taste of the season with a friendly soup competition with a prize for the best soup. We encourage you to prepare your favorite soup to share with your neighbors. Cheese, bread and fruit will also be available for those who don't like soup! Watch the children as they come prepare for a night of candy-gathering. We hope to make this Halloween a celebration of the season for children of all ages!

If you would like to volunteer, or bring a soup, please contact Kris Cann at 415.383.3083 or kristincann@hotmail.com.

Halloween - Monday, October 31st 4pm to 5:30pm

Fall Music Festival

Hope You Made It, It Was a GREAT One!

By Bob Westbrook

An estimated 7-800 attendees flocked to the meadow by the Homestead Valley Community Center on Sunday September 4th, drawn by a combination of great weather, fantastic food and an amazing line up of bands, including the 20 voice Oakland Interfaith Youth Gospel Choir, acoustic duo Forest Sun, our headliner the Monophonics, and the enticingly bluesy, tri-female fronted Muddy Roses, featuring HVCA's Les Lizama on bass and his daughter Alicia on vocals.

The music was selected and bands enlisted by festival co-chair and music aficionado Ron Shalhoup. Ron also coordinated the sound, built the website, did promotions in various newspapers, hung posters, helped build the stage, purchased food/beverages for the band, set up, tore down, etc., etc. etc!!! This event would not happen without his efforts....THANKS RON!

HOMESTEAD HEADLINES OF YESTERYEAR

The first edition of the Homestead Headlines, Vol. 1, No. 1, appeared in December 1954. The subheading was, "The Voice of the Homestead Valley Improvement Club."

It grew in popularity. By 1965, HVIC had 270 dues paying members—dues were $1.00/year. Each member received a copy of the monthly Headlines in the mail. There was a lot going on in the community in those days and a lot to report on. The Headlines was printed on 8-1/2" x 14" paper. There were between 4 and 10 pages depending on the volume of news. Many of the articles were contributed by residents. Here is a run down of what was in the October 1967 issue.

The front page has four articles: HVIC announces the 1967/1968 Candlelight Concert Series—see page 9 for the schedule and order blank for season tickets to the 5 concerts ($12.00); August rummage sale netted $585—next sale in March; Homestead Headlines seeks Editor; HVIC general meeting to be held in Brown's Hall on 10/28—Paul Zucker, Marin County Planning director, will discuss problems of a second deck on the Golden Gate Bridge.

There are 13 more articles. Two identify board members and Headlines staff. Four are announcements: Library Gallery fall season show features photographs by Marin City youth; P.T.A. October meeting will feature Martin Friedman's slides of a Sierra club pack trip; Homestead Players obtained the rights to produce West Coast premier of "Slow Dance on the Killing Ground"—it opens in Brown's Hall on 11/24; Brown's Hall schedule: dance class, dog training, coin club, concerts, play.

Four articles cover past events: Observations at the annual Stolte Grove concert in September; Trip news of Homestead residents; Willa Gritter's long report on her 3-week trip to Washington, D.C. in a hippy van with Christina Oldenburg and six children, ages 1 to 11; an interview with long time resident Lance Robinson about how Homestead has changed since 1910; an article about musician Jon Hendricks, a famous resident currently appearing at the Hungry i.

Other news: an article about Homestead School having six new teachers, a new administrator, a new secretary and a librarian.; The CONSERVATION CORNER column reports that HVIC was well represented at the July Board of Supervisors Meeting on the West Marin Water Plan. There are ten ads for local Mill Valley businesses—only Jolly King Liquors, still exists.

Currently, the Headlines is sent to every home in Homestead—all residents are automatically members of the Homestead Valley Community Association. Since April 2000, there have been monthly history articles—this is the 139th.

Chuck's articles are posted on www.millvalleyhistoricalsociety.org. Photos are clearer on line than in print. He can be emailed at chuckoldenburg@gmail.com.

HOMESTEAD HEADLINES

Homestead Village Officially Joins Marin Village

On Wednesday, September 21 Homestead Village celebrated its official new status as a CVO (Community Village Organization), part of the countywide Marin Village, with a well-attended potluck supper at the Homestead Community Center.

Special guests from Marin Village at the Homestead Village potluck were Melanie Summers, executive director and Susan Miglioli, volunteer coordinator. Rafael Krantz from Marin Access spoke to the group outlining their volunteer driver program. Another distinguished guest was Marin County supervisor Steve Kinsey who spoke words of encouragement for programs such as Marin Village which provide support for the growing senior population.

The stated goal of Marin Village and its CVOs is to provide referral and volunteer services which will enable seniors to age gracefully and safely in their own homes. Homestead Village will go beyond providing those services if Wednesday night's potluck is an indication! A parade of smiling guests filed into the Center bearing bowls and casseroles presaging a gourmet feast. Applause broke out in the room when Letty Erringer's squash was singled out for special mention (see recipe on the back page). A fine celebration!

The Village presents...

Post World War II Artistic Creativity

Homestead Village is pleased to present author and Sausalito resident Betsy Stroman, with a talk about Sausalito's art colony which rose to national prominence during the post-World War period and was a vital part of the Bay area's cultural scene. Betsy's illustrated lecture will feature some of the painters, collage artists, poets, musicians, filmmakers, and others who made a contribution to the cultural scene in and around Mill Valley and Sausalito during the period following the end of World War II.

This free event will be held Friday, November 18 at 2:00 PM at the Homestead Valley Community Center.

An excellent assortment of barbecued offerings and salads including burgers, veggie burgers, sausages, hot dogs, homemade pasta and Caesar salads prepared and served up by Diana Flasher and her crew Nejat Duzgunes, Maxine Flasher/Duzgunes, Avery Flasher Duzgenes, Reed Sawyers, Kyle and Shannon Sutherland, Nicole Yip, Ula Belland, Talia Tarrant, Emma Jones, Aimee Westbrook, Jackson Westbrook with Scott Greenstone heroically stepping in to man the BBQs. We also were pleased to have the culinary skills of Jon O of “Jon O Custom Catering”, who planned the menu, did the cost analysis, helped pull off the purchasing at Costco and prepped many of the food items for this year’s event. Thanks Jon O – We’ll DEFINITELY see you next year!!

The food was complimented by a fantastic offering of assorted wines and beer at Lisa and Bob’s Bar in the Meadow (Lisa Santos and Bob Hunn proprietors with Liz Brown and friends in the primary supporting roles.). The beer was provided in part by Mill Valley Beer Works, who also came out to pour some of their fine brews. Thank you Tyler and Justin...! New this year, was a premium wine station that featured high end Italian whites and reds that were graciously donated and served by Nancy Romano, a Mill Valley native and importer/distributor of high end Italian wines.

The ever popular dessert concession was coordinated this year by Diana Flasher and served at the food concession tent. We send MANY THANKS to the many Homestead Valley bakers who lovingly supplied all of the delectable delights including Dawn Shalhoup, Liz Bolton, Jan MacNichol, Teri Nevin, Dana Schmidt and Aimee Westbrook.

The silent auction, led by Donations Chair - Kevin Sutherland, was a huge draw this year and included auction items such as an HVCA pool membership, fitness packages, chiropractic services, days of beauty, gourmet meals, camp memberships, etc!! Kevin also was the driving force behind securing a generous cash donation from one of our Major Sponsors, Karen Burrous and Opes Advisors. He also secured Mill Valley Beer Works’ (with a big assist from Lisa Santos) and Noci Gelato’s participation, which raised thousands of dollars to offset the cost of such great bands! See full list of sponsors on the opposite page.

Also instrumental in the fundraising effort were the “Donation Dudes and Dudes” including Grace and Spencer Westbrook, Maddie Greenstone, Kyle Sutherland, Finn Shalhoup and others, who braved the crowds to personally solicit support for the cause! The team was led by Scott Greenstone, who coordinated the kids and retrieved/counted the endless stacks of small bills..!

Our kid’s area was devised again this year by Kim Strub who spent HOURS transforming our local cherubs into monkeys, vampires, kitties, etc. at her face painting/crafts station. Kim’s creative foresight proved exceptionally positive as the area was continually crowded with smiling and laughing kids of all ages (She had potentially the longest lines of any concession in the meadow!).

Our stage manager this year was Scott Greenstone, in coordination with David Rush and Ron Shalhoup, who spent hours moving the stage back and forth from the Tamalpais Community Services District lot and oversaw it’s setup in the meadow. Thanks again to TCSD for again loaning us their stage! We appreciate our ongoing partnership with them...

Our attendance counts, again this year, was coordinated by Margaret Harding with help from Nancy Willard, Renee Glazier, Aiden Grahame (Margaret’s granddaughter) and Aiden’s friend Rebeka who distributed (and counted) wristbands to all of the attendees (what an amazing effort!). The wristbands were also donated by Margaret!

Set up and tear down was headed by Greg Lehman, Dana Schmidt and Anthony Boas (and son!) with help from various attendees and volunteers! They truly exemplified the “got there early and stayed late” ethic that is true of Homestead volunteers!

The ever important Porta Potty’s were coordinated by Bob Hunn who worked with Jim Iaveroni and Mill Valley Refuse to DRAMATICALLY reduce our costs this year..! Thanks Bob. And THANKS to Jim and Mill Valley Refuse for the kind consideration...

Not shockingly, Bob Carreras, former Board President and local electrical contractor, who built us a dedicated industrial strength electrical run last year, was back once again this year for the install/de-install of the power.

Our fabulous festival posters were designed again this year by Megan McKearney of Freelight Design in Berkeley. Megan donates her creative talents and does our printing at cost!! Please email her if you have ANY design or print related needs. freelightdesign@gmail.com

Extra special thanks to Les Lizama and David Ross, assisted by Gwen Gallagher and Susan Gonzalez, for all of the continued support and fantastic effort on preparing the meadow, setting up all of the tents, manning the auction payment processing area and getting it all back in order, post event! You two do a REALLY tremendous job!

Finally, I would like to thank our lead sponsors, Karen Burroughs and Opes Advisors who provided a VERY generous cash donation, and the Marin Horizon School, who very graciously provided the giant jumpee (with staffing), the parking area and the meats for the BBQ. MHS has already agreed to sponsorship for next year and has really become an integral part of the festival equation.

AND LAST BUT NOT LEAST, I would like to thank my wife Aimee and my kids, Jackson, Grace and Spencer, who not only helped with various important aspects of the festival, but put up with my absence leading up to and after it... xxoo to you all!!!!

A festival wrap up and 2012 pre-planning meeting will be held on Wednesday October 5th at 6:30 p.m. upstairs in the community center meeting room. Please attend if you would like to volunteer for next year's event or simply email me at bionlinebob@yahoo.com.

Land Trust Notes...

Adopt-a-Trail App
By Philip Moyer

If I may step inside the constellation of your existence for a moment and interrupt the cyber-flow to suggest that you put the iMac to sleep for a while, grab the iPhone that you've muted, and take advantage of the mild fall weather and go for a stroll on one of the Valley's trails out there waiting for you.

Putting aside all the constantly orbiting things...solar flares...fashion week in NYC...stock market fluctuations...kids orthodontics...go force yourself out the door! While you are leisurely strolling, listening to the chatter of a towhee or crow, paying attention to your breath & the sound of your feet on the ground, consider a suggestion—help the Land Trust keep the trails in good condition. By selecting a trail or part of a trail that you use regularly, take some time to help keep it in shape; cutting back branches like the one that keeps swatting you in the face, every time, and cutting back shrubs, mind the poison oak please. When the rain starts, making sure water run-off does not erode the trail by fixing or adding a water bar. These activities would allow for a better functioning trail system and everyone benefits.

Questions? But, of course! Contact Maverick or a Land Trust board member. John Muir would have loved it: Adopt-a Trail—what an idea!

Keep in touch. Thanks for the support!

Fire Safe Homestead...

Chipper Day Returns Sunday, November 6th!
By Helen Beck

The Homestead Valley Community Association and Land Trust Boards are sponsoring a free Chipper Day on Sunday, November 6th from 10 AM to 4 PM at the Community Center, 315 Montford Ave. This is the only day material can be accepted for chipping. An area will be roped off in the Center parking lot for cuttings and monitors will verify residency.

What can be chipped? Green or dry brush or cuttings not to exceed 5-inches in diameter. As the cost of hiring a chipper crew can be more than $1,200, we can only accept this material which can be handled in a safe, routine manner. Grass, vines, poison oak, scotch broom, cut lumber and plastic bags need to go to the dump at the resident's cost. We cannot accept these items. In the past, we have had to pay the chipper crew or volunteers had to take them to the dump.

If you have a hauler deliver your cuttings, you need to be present at HVCC during delivery to verify residency and that the cuttings are yours. We can not accept material from non-Homestead residents. What if it rains? We will still collect brush and cuttings for chipping. Please keep a record of the time you spend clearing vegetation or any expenses such as hiring help or renting a truck. This information is very helpful when we apply for funding to continue fire safety work. Take advantage of this opportunity to clean up and be fire safe. For more information, call Center Director Les Lizama at 388-0137. Volunteers are needed to help on Sunday, November 6th and on Monday, November 7th, the actual chipping day. Please call Helen Beck to volunteer 388-0975, or e-mail helenbeck@earthlink.net.

October is the time to clean out your rain gutters and trim vegetation back from your house. For an evaluation of how to create "defensible space" around your home, call Fred Hilliard, Fire Prevention Specialist for the Southern Marin Fire Department at 289-4156, Monday through Thursday or hilliard@SMFD.org. Until Chipper Day, Mill Valley Refuse Service will pick up boxed yard waste and paper bags of grass. Call 457-9760 for an appointment.

Saying Goodbye...

Mary Brabo (1910 – 2011)

On September 23, Mary Bettencourt Brabo passed away peacefully at her home, adjacent to the farm house where she was born over 100 years ago. Her husband, Tony Brabo, died two months earlier. The couple had attended the July 4th picnic and party at Stolte Grove where they were commended for their 82 years of marriage.

The Homestead Village Squash Casserole

Courtesy of Letty Erringer

The Squash or Pumpkin:

- 3 tablespoons butter
- 1/2 cup diced onion
- 1/2 cup diced celery
- 1/4 cup diced carrots
- 2 pounds winter squash or pumpkin, coarsely chopped
- 3 garlic cloves, smashed
- bay leaf
- 1/8 teaspoon thyme
- 1/2 teaspoon salt

The Beans:

- 2 1/2 cups cooked white beans
- Soak 1 cup dry beans overnight, cook 1 hour. Or, if canned, drain and rinse.
- 2 eggs, lightly beaten
- 1/2 cup cream or fat-free condensed milk
- Salt and fresh-ground pepper to taste
- 3 tablespoons butter
- 2 ounces grated Swiss cheese

Preheat oven to 350. In a large ovenproof pot, melt the butter and add the onions, celery and carrots. Cover and cook on top of the stove until soft. Add the pumpkin or squash, the garlic, bay leaf, thyme and salt. Cover the pot with waxed paper and its lid, and bake for 30 or 40 minutes. Remove from the oven, dispose of the bay leaf, and heat oven to 425. Stir the beans into the pumpkin mix and puree it in a blender or food processor. Return the mixture to the pot or ovenproof bowl. Stir in the cream and eggs and season with salt and pepper. Dot with butter and sprinkle on the cheese. Heat in oven for 25 to 30 minutes until hot.
Serves 12 Adapted from a recipe in "SAN FRANCISCO A LA CARTE".
