Policy on Electoral Candidate Rentals: The HVCA, as a 501c(3) non-profit organization, is prohibited from participating, either directly or indirectly, in any political campaign activity in favor of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. As a result, it is our policy not to make center facilities available for use by individual candidates on a gratuitous basis. The HVCA will, however, permit rental of center facilities by individual candidates at the non-profit rate as long as scheduling permits and provided that the candidate publicizes the fact the HVCA is not sponsoring the event. The HVCA may from time to time host unbiased candidate forums, town halls, and similar voter education activities where the invitation to participate is extended to as many candidates as reasonably practicable.
